

SAYS ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE TINKERED WITH CONSTITUTION

New Jersey Association Challenges for Debate—Declare Amendment Must Die.

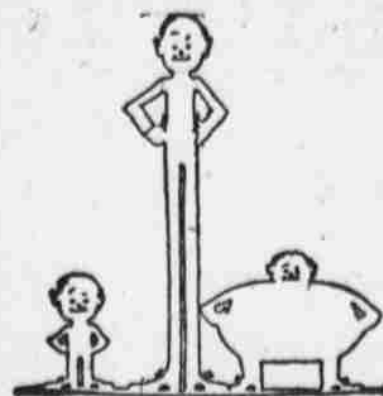

"Resolved that Constitutional Prohibition is wrong in principle and un-Christian in character."

That's the challenge of the Association Opposed to National Prohibition of New Jersey. They dare the Anti-Saloon League of New Jersey to a joint debate in all the large centres of the State. The Board of Directors of the new organization declares that it is not fighting the fight of the saloonkeeper, the brewer, or the distiller. They are fighting the principle involved in the 18th Amendment of the Constitution of the United States. Managing Director James Arthur Seavy says:

"When a handful of persons—fanatics, sealots and highly paid professional reformers—in a population of 11,000,000 can so tinker with the Constitution of the United States as to put in it the only inhibition it ever contained—the inhibition which takes away one of the rights and privileges hitherto safeguarded and guaranteed by that Constitution—it is high time that the rest of the 11,000,000 woke up to the dangers which threaten our national life and the menace to constitutional liberty in the exercised tyranny of a minority."

"The Eighteenth Amendment nullifies every principle for which the soldiers of the American Revolution fought. If the first ten amendments to the Constitution—the American Bill of Rights—shall live, then the Eighteenth must die."

The personnel of the Board of Directors of the New Jersey State branch is as follows: Gen. William C. Hoppenheimer, President, Trust Company of New Jersey, Hoboken; Prof. E. P. Adams, Department of Physics, Princeton University; Roger H. Ward, Secretary and Treasurer, General Leather Company, Newark; E. C. Klipstein, Treasurer, A. Klipstein & Co., manufacturing chemists, East Orange; Edward M. Waldron, President, Edward M. Waldron & Co., Inc., and Member of the Board of Education, Newark; Dr. G. T. Applegate, President, Union Club, New Brunswick; David Grotta, President, Board of Trade, and Secretary, Weingarten Brothers, Inc., Newark; Louis Aronson, President, Art Metal Works, Newark; Joseph M. Byrne, Real Estate, Newark; Philip J. Bowers, President Philip J. Bowers Company, Newark; Charles E. Hetzel, manufacturer of roofing paints and cements, Newark; and Carl Merz, Secretary, Heller & Merz, Newark.

Time for short men to get into long underwear! No time for long men to be short of it either! No need for any of us to invite Winter colds!

Complete range of sizes in both Fall and Winter weights.

Union suits include No. 939 (medium weight) and No. 923 (Winter weight)—both with raglan shoulders. Our own idea.

"Shire" collars are pure linen where the wear comes. Exclusive styles.

"Solo" socks include some smart, new, two-tone effects selling for as little as a $1.25.

Our Scotch knit jackets are imported direct.

Misses'

FROCKS OF VELVET OR VELVETEEN

May spend the afternoon or evening at any social gathering.

YOUTH, Wintertime and velvet form a rhythmic triolet in the affairs of a miss of fashion, for there is a velvet frock to rhyme with every occasion of Winter, and with each individual miss. If the event is informal the frock may be one of velveteen, touched with metallic threads or wool embroidery; if formal, it may be of chiffon velvet, softened with drapery or tipped with fur.
